Meet Dylan, an 18-year-old whose current Gender identity is Non-binary and genderfluid. Dylan kicks off our Teen Intersectionality Series! In the first video of the series, Dylan shares their experiences navigating both their mental health and gender identity. They also discuss the importance and impact finding a community has had on them. Check out the video to learn more about Dylan and what intersectionality means to them!

Keep the conversation going and ask Dylan your questions in the Gender Spectrum Lounge. Check out the following groups to keep the conversation going: Teens, Non-Binary Teens, Gender-Expansive Teens, Genderqueers, and Parents and Primary Caregivers.
